The official newsletter of Citizens Against Government Waste & the Council for Citizens Against Government Waste

Message from the President

Thomas A. Schatz

INTRODUCING THE 2015 CONGRESSIONAL RATINGS

The Council for Citizens Against Government Waste (CCAGW) continues to lead the way in holding lawmakers accountable for uncontrolled spending and the rampant growth of government with our 2015 Congressional Ratings, which scrutinize the voting records of all 535 members of Congress.

These Ratings measure the first session of the current Congress, highlighting a total of 100 votes in the House of Representatives and 35 in the Senate covering a range of issues from Obamacare and estate tax repeal to defense appropriations.

As president of CCAGW, I applaud these Taxpayer Super Heroes for their commitment to cutting wasteful spending and making government more accountable to taxpayers. Their records are refreshing in the current fiscal climate of burdensome taxes and a $19 trillion national debt, and I was honored to present many of these leaders with their awards personally on March 15.

On the other end of the spectrum, 26 representatives and 25 senators rank as “Hostile” to taxpayers based on their scores of zero in 2015 — a stark reminder that there are still too many public officials who support the unrestrained growth of government at the taxpayers’ expense.

You can discover how your U.S. Representative and Senators performed in the first session of the 114th Congress in this issue of Government Waste Watch. You can also view the Ratings, along with statistics comparing the performance of state delegations and of Republicans and Democrats, and an itemization of this year’s selected votes at ccagwratings.org.

I am grateful to all our members who help CCAGW hold Congress accountable. Thanks to our Ratings, no lawmaker can hide behind phony rhetoric about “fiscal responsibility.” CCAGW gives taxpayers the truth! •

CCAGW President Thomas A. Schatz presented commendations to senators and representatives who earned a CCAGW Taxpayer Super Hero 100% rating for 2015. Recipients included: [1] Sen. Tom Cotton (R-Ark.), [2] Rep. Barry Loudermilk (R-Ga.), [3] Rep. Tom McClintock (R-Calif.), and [4] Sen. John Barrasso (R-Wyo.).

2015 CONGRESSIONAL RATINGS

Since 1989, the Council for Citizens Against Government Waste (CCAGW) has examined roll call votes to identify those members of Congress who defend taxpayer interests and those who are betraying the taxpayers' trust. We congratulate the lawmakers who championed fiscal responsibility throughout the first session of the 114th Congress and encourage the constituents of profligate lawmakers to demand better from their elected officials. •

LEAVE A LEGACY of fiscal restraint and accountability

To sustain Citizens Against Government Waste's (CAGW) efforts to ensure that the American taxpayer's interests win out over the special interests in Washington, a number of Charter Members have joined the J. Peter Grace Legacy Society. Named for the late Grace Commission chairman and CAGW co-founder, the society provides a vehicle for you to remember CAGW in your estate planning.

By including CAGW in your will or living trust, you can reap tax benefits for you and your family, as well as ensure a legacy of fiscal responsibility and accountability in government for future generations of Americans. For more information about the J. Peter Grace Legacy Society, please contact Martin Rundle at 1-800-872-3328 or e-mail us at jpgsociety@cagw.org.
